Yo, I'm Johnny DC! I'm the DJ at this Block Party. Did I tell you that the Powerpuff Girls are joining CARTOON NETWORK BLOCK PARTY next month? Well, I'm telling you now! I'm so psyched!!

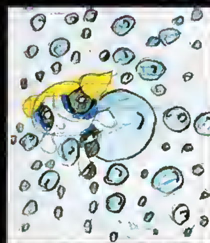

[DRAWING BY AMANDA GRACE, FROM VIRGINIA]

Dear Johnny DC,

My favorite Powerpuff Girl is Blossom. I like her the best because she is almost like the leader of the team.

Nicole Chin, age 8
San Francisco, California

[DRAWING BY WILLIAM JARED-JAMES PHOENIX, AGE 7]

Dear Johnny DC,

I think you should make a Powerpuff comic where Mojo Jojo makes an age ray, but his hopes are crushed because, instead of going back and disappearing, the Powerpuffs are just turned into babies!

Mojo is probably my favorite villain because my favorite animal is a chimp. I don't have a favorite Powerpuff Girl because it's too hard to choose between intelligence, sweetness, and incredible strength.

Josslyn Barton
Lindon, Utah

[DRAWING BY JOSSLYN BARTON]

Dear Powerpuffs,

I'd love to have powers like you. I know I'm a little old for you, but I'm a big fan.

I'd like it if you would make a show where the Professor and everyone in town become evil, then you can spray water on them and they become good again.

Ashley Davis, age 10
Midland, Texas

Ashley, I know people even a few years older than you who are fans.

Thanks for your story ideas, Ashley and Josslyn! However, the writers and artists who make the comics and cartoons enjoy thinking up their own ideas. By the way, the writers and artists are adults, and they're not too old for the Powerpuff Girls!
— Johnny DC

[DRAWING BY ASHLEY DAVIS]

Dear Johnny DC,

I really like the POWERPUFF GIRLS comics. I have a question. Why are the comics different from the show?

I drew a new Powerpuff Girl. Her name is Bell E. Donner. She loves the nighttime and wearing flip-flops.

Ana E. Bernas, age 11
Moline, Illinois

Well, I hope you keep on reading the Girls after they move here to the BLOCK PARTY. One of the reasons the stories in the comic books are different from the TV show is that new stories are more interesting for the readers AND the artists. Why read (or draw) the same story you just saw on TV?
— Johnny DC
